Clinical Psychologist, PSY 16474

INFORMED CONSENT

Psychotherapy may involve the risk of remembering unpleasant events and can arouse intense emotions of fear and anger. Intense feelings of guilt, anxiety, depression, frustration, loneliness, or helplessness may also be aroused.

The benefits from psychotherapy may be that you will be better able to cope with or handle your family or other social relationships, thus experiencing more satisfaction from those relationships. Another possible benefit may be a better understanding of your personal goals and values; this may lead to a greater maturity and growth as a person.

You should know that a Licensed Clinical Psychologist is not a physician and cannot prescribe medications. As a Licensed Clinical Psychologist, I cannot likewise provide you with medications, nor can I perform any medical procedures. If medical treatment is needed, I can recommend a physician for you or you can choose any physician you wish to see.
